Murphy, North Bay groups offer $10,000

PTO proposals on air conditioning get icy reception from school boards

by EDGAR PEREZ
The Bay St. Louis and Hancock County School Boards have turned cold shoulders, at least for now, on separate air conditioning proposals made by parent-teacher organizations of North Bay and C. B. Murphy Elementary Schools.

Proffering more than $10,000 between them, PTO representatives of North Bay in Bay St. Louis and Murphy in Pearlinton this month appeared before their respective school boards, only to have ice water splashed on a fiery enthusiasm for their classroom-chilling proposals.

Heading the bucket brigade for the county school board was Board Attorney Joseph Gex who reduced to a minor sizzle the head of steam worked up by the Murphy PTO over the idea of re-wiring that school with $4,000 from the organization treasury.

Gex warned the board of its liability for any problems which might result from electrical work undertaken in anything but the prescribed, step-by-step procedures normally followed for school improvements.

The Murphy PTO, represented before the board by Principal J. D. Penton, also proposed to eventually raise some $20,000 necessary to equip the school's classrooms with window air conditioning units once new wiring is installed.

Gex said one legal procedure for the PTO to follow would be to turn its $4,000 over to the school board, allowing the board to advertise for bids on the rewiring and let a contract for the job to a licensed, bonded electrician.

Board President Woodrow Ladner assigned the PTO proposal to a special board committee on air and heating problems for further study.

This week at the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School Board meeting, North Bay PTO representatives said they have accumulated some $6,792 during the past two years, funds dedicated to the installation of air conditioning at that school.

Superintendent J. D. McCullouch and the board members profusely thanked the PTO members for their efforts, interest and enthusiasm, but provided no answers to the group's questions about how to proceed with their proposal for improving the school.

"You are certainly to be commended," said Board Member Robert Hamilton, adding, "I only hope your enthusiasm doesn't wane when it comes time for a school improvements bond issue."

Board President Virginia Gex said the board was powerless to act on the group's proposal until new budgets are drawn up in July.

Board Architect Fred Wagner snatched the PTO proposal from imminent oblivion when he suggested the board seek an estimate from a local mechanical engineer on the cost of a study to determine the actual number of dollars involved in air conditioning North Bay.

Wagner suggested the PTO might be interested in underwriting the cost of such a study which he estimated at several hundred dollars.

PTO representatives Lana Noonan and Judy McCormick were receptive to Wagner's proposal. Wagner said he would recommend a Bay St. Louis engineer he considers "the best on the coast" who is currently engaged on an air conditioning project in Gulfport schools.

The board accepted the proposal to secure a cost estimate on an engineer's study of the North Bay problem, and included the Junior High School in its resolution.

North Bay Principal Billy Sills supported the PTO representatives in their complaints that the heating system at the school has caused severe problems this winter.

Overpass building start date is two weeks away

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Gregory Construction Company was awarded the revised negotiated contract in the amount of $117,753 for Phase II construction of the Pedestrian Overpass across U.S. 90 Monday night by Bay St. Louis City Council.

The original bid price was $164,868 and council recommended Mayor Larry Bennett and Charles H. Hill, consulting engineer, Burk and Associates, to negotiate with Gregory last month.

Bennett announced Wednesday that construction should begin within two weeks.

In making the announcement he cited Governor Cliff Finch, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, and Highway Commissioner Shag Pyron for their help with the project.

Hill said Highway Commissioner Shag Pyron told him and Bennett his department would install the guardrails, with cost to the city, a savings of some $18,450.

The Highway Department's engineering section also agreed to change the requirements on the type of girders needed and gave permission to switch from aluminum hand rails to single galvanized fence piping.

With all these changes in order, a reduction of $47,115 was given the city by Gregory Construction.

In other action, council authorized the borrowing of $150,000 at six percent interest for the purpose of constructing needed school system buildings and to issue short term notes, therefore, the first repayment being due in 1979. Funds will be deposited in a special account for the purposes mentioned and to use the surplus revenues in short term school note fund as may be required for the same purposes.

Local funds in the amount of $155,211 are to be matched by the Education Finance Commission (EFC) in the amount of $113,655 for a new food (MATCHING FUNDS - Page 6A)

Work approved during January tops $1½-million

By EDGAR PEREZ

Hancock County and its municipalities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland issued more than a half-million dollars in building permits during the first month of 1978.

The Mississippi Research and Development Center's Gulf Coast branch in Long Beach reported a total of 15 permits issued in January on Waveland construction valued at $301,976.

Bay St. Louis issued a total of four permits during the month with a value of $137,520 declared on the work to be performed.

Ten permits on construction valued at $137,520 were issued during the period by Hancock County for construction in the unincorporated areas of the county.

Permits to build DuDe RR bridges debated tonight at Corps hearing

Save The Bay cites wetlands destruction

By EDGAR PEREZ

Revised plans for construction of a 13.5 mile spur line railroad between DuPont's DeLisle plant and Illinois Central's mainline north of Gulfport are to be considered at a public hearing in Gulfport tonight.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers hearing, postponed last month, has been set for 7 p.m. Thursday at Westside Community Center, Gulfport.

Under consideration at the hearing is an application for a permit to construct embankments and trestles for the rail spur by the Southern Mississippi

Transportation Company, DuPont subsidiary which will build and operate the spur line.

Wolf River, Bayou DeLisle and Turkey Creek will be affected by the construction, with the revised plans calling for non-interference with an oxbow lake and avoidance of considerable areas of wet lands which would have been destroyed under the original plans.

The Corps estimates about 3,000 cubic yards of fill will be required to stabilize Wolf River banks in the crossing area.

The Bayou DeLisle crossing has been rerouted over some 500 feet of an existing dyke to avoid crossing delicate wetlands.

Cyril Laan, chairman of Save The Bay Inc., has stated proposed industrial development along the spur "...is not needed since ample space is available in existing industrial parks for the foreseeable future."

"Most of the public-at-large along the Gulf Coast is thinking in terms of an innocent little railroad spur for the sole purpose of serving DuPont," Laan said in a letter this week to John C. White of Atlanta, Region IV administrator for

Sewer breaks can lead to explosion, Bay told

By ELLIS CUEVAS

"The 10 or 12 sewer breaks in Bay St. Louis are not going to get any better. They are going to get worse if you don't fix them. These sewer breaks, if you don't fix them will cause the water lines to break next, then the gas lines will go, and you can have an explosion," City Council was told Monday by Robert E. Rice, of Burk and Associates, engineers.

"The more rains, the faster the sewer cave-ins are going to happen and the lines deteriorate."

"It will cost an estimated $75 to $100,000 to repair the breaks, $5,000 or $6,000 for the smaller ones and $10,000 or more for the deMontluzin-Necaise, and N. Second-St. George breaks," Rice said.

Council President James Thrifflay was concerned, as were the other councilmen, as to whether any funds are available for emergency repairs, especially the deMontluzin and Second-St. breaks, which Rice considered dangerous.

Rice suggested the possibility of Bay St. Louis receiving Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) funds, since this was an emergency. He recommended Mayor Larry Bennett and Charles H. Hill of Burk and Associates go to Atlanta and apply at EPA for

CITY SEWER LINE is cited as the cause of this situation of raw sewerage accumulating along the side of this residence at the corner of Watts and Kellar Streets, and drainage problems at other homes in the immediate area. Residents say the problem has plagued them "since before Christmas." Plumber Harold Saucier insists, in spite of city claims to the contrary, that the problem is one requiring city sewerage department action. (Staff photo-Edgar Perez)

Clear sailing given fishing vessel $'s bill

Legislation authored by Congressman Trent Lott, to decrease the initial investment required for building or reconditioning of fishing vessels has been approved by the Senate Commerce Committee.

The bill was approved by the House of Representatives earlier this year and forwarded to the Senate committee. It is now pending for action on the Senate floor and, if passed in its present form,
will be sent to the President for his signature.

"Approval by the Senate
Commerce Committee without change represents the clearing of a significant hurdle and I hope the full Senate will also approve the legislation," Lott said.
Lott's bill would permit the federal government to guarantee obligations for financing fishing vessels up to 87 and one-half percent of the actual construction or reconditioning cost. Under current law, the government may guarantee a maximum of 75 percent on loans through the National Marine Fisheries Service.

The bill has the practical effect of slashing in half the money that individual fishermen must put up to build or renovate their vessels. The congressman said he introduced the legislation
because many fishermen expressed a desire to reduce the initial investment required.

HEALTH DEPT. TO CLOSE
Dr. Louis H. Jobe, Director
Hancock County Health Department, announced the Health Department will be closed all day Thursday,
March 23, for an inservice meeting in Gulfport.

Senior Citizens Happenings

By FRED HORN

RECREATION

The Seniors social hour March 13th, was a huge success. The weather was ideal, a beautiful sunny day, turned out many of our Senior Citizens who because of the cold weather had stayed home the last few months. It was gratifying to me to see everyone smiling, and in a jovial mood. All present enjoyed the activities that took place during the afternoon.

Orchids to all of our RSVP Volunteers, who helped to make our event successful, they are: Telephone Committee, Mrs. Odette Taconi, Cecile Galivan, Odette Watkins, Nina Garner, Lucie Bradt, Jewell Stratton, and Eva Ruhr; baking cakes: Lucie Bradt, Bernice Scaffidi; servers: Georgia Diebold, Annie Sulzer, Ethel Dormain, Alma Russo, and Julia Leddy, who also registered all our Seniors. Archie Diebold, Les Galivan, and Joe Roppolo, coordinated all activities during the social hour.

ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Watkins, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, on Monday, March 6th.

An anniversary party attended by close friends had a surprise visit from their nephew, Timothy Cummings, his wife, Anne, and their three daughters from Baton Rouge, La. It was held on March 4th, at their home in Bay St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummings and family, presented them with a money tree. Mrs. Watkins is a RSVP volunteer, who serves on our telephone committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, "in behalf of all of the personnel at our Senior Citizens Center, we extend our sincere wishes for a prosperous, healthy, and long life, so that you may enjoy the next 50 years, as well as your first 50."

BAY ST. LOUIS

The Senior Citizens Club will hold their March meeting, 10 a.m. Tuesday, March 21st. All members please attend as many important issues will be discussed.

WAVELAND

The Senior Citizens Club meeting was Monday, March 13th, at the Civic Center on Coleman Avenue.

President Ruby Life, introduced Mrs. Lucille Hebert, who gave the invocation.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was given by Morgan O'Rourke.

Barbara Rappold, City Clerk, representing the City of Waveland, spoke on behalf of National Library Week, which is from Sunday, April 2nd to Saturday, April 8th. She asked the club members to assist in the presentation of Super Sunday, April 2nd, from 1 to 3.

President Life stated that members would volunteer their services wherever needed. The members will assist Mildred Means, and the Waveland Library, to entertain the visitors, with music provided by Ruby Life on the piano, Dr. Life on the violin, and Fred Horn on drums. Louis Burghard, a fine pianist from Bay St. Louis will also offer many fine renditions.

Mildred Means, explained the various events that will be of interest to the Senior Citizens. There will be a plant contest on Tuesday, April 4th; a Book Review, 1 p.m., Wednesday, April 5th; a Quilting Contest, 1-4 p.m., Friday, April 7th.

Monday, April 10th, the Waveland American Legion Auxiliary presented a luncheon and prizes in conjunction with the regular meeting. The meeting was followed by a St. Patrick's Day Party. Ruby Life played the piano while Dr. Life and yours truly led in a songfest of Irish Songs. Yours truly, closed the festivities with a very unusual rendition of McNamara's Band. Refreshments of home-made cake, cookies, and coffee were served. Our Compliments to Pere Cabibi who did all of the decorating for the party, and to the

AARP

There will be a meeting of the American Association of Retired Persons, Hancock County Chapter No. 1114, 10 a.m. Monday, March 20th, at the Civic Center, Coleman Avenue, Waveland. Guest Speaker will be John Smith, County Agent.

ILLNESS

We are very sorry to hear that Eunice Murray, Alma Joubert, Nora Boudreaux, Mildred O'Rourke, Frank Lody, Lillian Harris, Mary

Williams, and Ulman Mauffray, have all been hospitalized. We prayerfully trust that each have a speedy recovery, to again return to our midst, as we miss their presence, as well as all other Seniors who are now recuperating at home.

BEREAVEMENT

Our condolences to the family of Elmer Necaise, of Kiln, Mississippi, who passed away. Elmer who was an active member of the Senior Citizens Club of the Kiln will be greatly missed by all.

In the days of convenience stores and drive-in food chains, there's one convenience that's often overlooked.

It's not a hamburger stand which often overlooks service. No, this place has a full staff ready and willing to serve you.

It's not a quickie food store that limits you to the bare necessities of life. This place offers luxuries that even the wealthiest person would be thrilled to have.

It's not a dairy bar which draws only a select group of people. This place has something to offer every age, every interest.

It's not a shop that only available in the big cities. This place is in your own community.

Last and probably best, it's not a store which hikes its prices to compensate the convenience it offers. This place offers you its services absolutely free.

Where is this place that offers convenience plus? Your library!

There are different things for different people — something for everyone. So try your library — the place for "info to go!"

Saturday is the day

Saturday the O'ladner's, O'Bourgeois', O'Longo's, will celebrate St. Patrick's Day with Waveland's Civic Association's 14th annual parade.

O'green will be the color theme as usual (some participants will probably feel green before it's over). It is a time when just about everything goes in O'Waveland.

One begins to wonder just when Bay St. Louis is going to take the initiative and come up with some type of celebration.

We guess Bay St. Louis residents are lucky to have Waveland to lean on for celebrations, Mardi Gras, St. Patrick's Day, fireworks celebrations, and so forth.

Well, anyway, if you want to have a good time this O'Saturday, be sure and view the parade.

It is even open to O'Bay of St. O'Louis residents.

Governor Cliff Finch

REPORT TO THE PEOPLE

I want to discuss with you an issue of concern to all of us. When I became your Governor two years ago, I made as one of my major goals, the accessibility of health care to all Mississippians, especially those in rural areas. Rural areas, because of low population and large geographic service areas, have faced significant problems in the delivery of adequate health care services.

With this in mind, I asked that the persons charged with overseeing health care in Mississippi organize the first Governor's Symposium on Rural Health. This was also the first such symposium in the nation. The symposium turned out to be highly successful.

But, I wanted more than just a symposium. I knew it would take much more to aid our fellow Mississippians, our elderly mothers and daddies who live in the rural areas. I asked that health service professionals team up to write the state and the nation's first Rural Health Development Plan.

This plan has been completed. While it does not exhaust all of the possibilities for improving the delivery of health care services in Mississippi, it does represent the beginning of a long-range solution. When the 12 initiatives defined in this plan are fully implemented, each will have a direct impact upon the health care needs of Mississippi's rural citizens.

These initiatives include such things as additional rural health clinics, better nutrition for the elderly, health and family life education, school health screening, prevention of child abuse and neglect, mental health, alcohol and drugs, home health and homemaker services, health care of the borderline poor, venereal disease control, dental health, health care transportation and coordination of health and human services.

I do not want this plan to be just another document drafted and then forgotten about. I want this to be a plan of action. With this in mind, I have instructed my key health personnel to periodically give me reports on the accomplishments of the various tasks in this plan.

When I leave office as Governor, I want the satisfaction of knowing these tasks have been fully realized. But, more than just personal fulfillment, I want to know that the quality of life has been improved for our Mississippians living in the rural areas.

Letters to the Editor

The great conspiracy

Dear Sir:

Just heard reports of two more rail cars in violent crash and chemical spill and possible evacuations.

How long are we going to hear these agonizing reports of the constant conspiratorial rash of train crashes, derailments, chemical spills, population evacuations, oil spills, barge crashes, elevator grain explosions, woods and house fires.

In my opinion these evil things are man made. Only one instance, not so long ago, in Florida, the train tragedy was at last labeled sabotage. Some one had the spunk and guts to come out with the truth.

I'd be willing to say that most of these horrible events, all over our nation, can be placed in the sabotage category. Surely the American people are not that naive, that such occurrences can be called "accidents" and the news media is quick to declare, "no one knows how they happened."

Our clever, subtle, skilled Guerrilla under cover terrorists, "Red Cells," scattered over our country, are highly paid for their damage in property and human lives.

How about the Canadian spies, paid $30,000 to law officers, who turned them over to the proper authorities; they were deported. The Canadian police were alert, loyal dedicated law officers.

I would maintain that all this destruction and chaos taking place today, will continue, until we arouse ourselves to the true source. Stop the vacillating, cringing hesitance and face the facts of a great cunning conspiracy, before we lose everything we hold dear.

Sincerely,
Eleanor Everett McFie
Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Thanks for caring

Dear Sir:

This is just a note of thanks to Mayor John Longo of Waveland for his decision to act on the Waveland Animal Shelter problem. Just last week I wrote a letter to this paper condemning that facility. I feel now I should write to express my thanks that this problem will be alleviated.

I do hope that the new shelter and full-time dog warden will be an asset to our town. Thank you, Mayor Longo and Board of Aldermen, for insight into a problem which far too many people consider inconsequential.

Gratefully,
Elizabeth A. Quinlan

HOUSE DEBATES HUMPHREY-HAWKINS BILL

By REP. TRENT LOTT

There is some truth to the old adage that the more things change, the more they stay the same, especially in connection with the so-called "Full Employment and Balanced Growth Act of 1978," the Humphrey-Hawkins bill.

The government's recent tendency to over-restrict economic growth has reached the point where the Congress - with the President's blessing - now wants to command that there shall be full employment in this country. But the bill carries no incentives to spur development in the private sector; rather, it merely suggests a 4 percent unemployment rate for all workers and 3 percent for those 20 and over by 1983.

The Humphrey-Hawkins bill was considered such an inflationary ogre when it was originally brought up that its architects were sent scurrying back to their drawing boards to design a more palatable package. From what I heard on the floor of the U.S. House of Representatives last week, they failed.

No one can argue with the thrust of the plan, to reduce unemployment. But my fundamental objective of reducing unemployment while increasing productivity without fueling inflation won't really be accomplished by this bill.

The legislation debated last week contained four basic elements, which, collectively, add another layer of red tape on a rapidly deteriorating economic structure. One element deals with fundamental policy decisions that enable the federal government to use all practicable means of promoting full employment, balanced growth and price stability. It identifies inflation as a "major national problem," as if we have to be reminded.

The second element involves economic planning, requiring the President to submit an annual economic report targeting goals for unemployment, production and real income. The third element authorizes liberal use of public works-type employment programs and the fourth includes procedures for congressional review.

The actual cost of the package remains a mystery, although estimates have ranged as high as $30 billion, if the 3 percent target is reached by 1983. Annual administrative costs could reach $50 million.

Many respected economists have cautioned that the bill could result in economic disaster, causing drastic increases in inflation. There are few substantive changes from the unemployment remedies with which we are now experimenting.

The legislation also gets Congress into the act of setting monetary policy. It is founded on an erroneous assumption, which is one reason the bill got off on the wrong foot with me to begin with.

The bill says the government should control the economy. I still believe the best weapon with which to fight inflation and unemployment is to give incentives to private industry. Unfortunately, Congress is looking in another direction.

Mississippi consumer report

WILL MY PACKAGE BE DELIVERED

Q - I ordered some things from a mail order firm about three months ago. My check has already cleared the bank, but I have yet to receive anything at all from the company. Aren't there some new regulations mail order firms must adhere to?

A - A Federal Trade Commission rule requires mail order companies to: Ship all orders within the time stated in a seller's advertisement or, if no time is given, within 30 days. If this cannot be done, the purchaser must be notified of the delay.

If there will be a delay in shipping, the purchaser must be given the option to cancel the order. If the company receives no reply, the company can assume the consumer has consented to the delay. This applies for an additional 30 days. For delays beyond this point, the consumer must give his consent in writing.

Provide the customer with a cost-free means to notify the company of a cancellation such as a postage-paid card.

Refund the customer's advance payment within seven business days if he requests it.

This rule is limited to merchandise only and does not apply to magazines and other serial deliveries; seeds and growing plants; or orders made on a COD basis.

RAISE FUR COATS FOR FUN FUN AND PROFIT

Q - I was contacted by a man who tried to sell me some chinchillas. He claimed I could make $20,000 raising them in Mississippi. Is a "chinchilla ranch" that good a buy?

A - Promoters of chinchilla ranches state that chinchilla ranchers earn thousands of dollars a year in their spare time. For an investment of several hundred dollars, they promise you a lifetime income. The promoters sell the chinchillas for about $300 to $500 each, and tell you that a good chinchilla pelt can bring $200 to $500. With six to eight offspring a year from each pair of chinchillas, it is obvious that in less than one year the chinchillas will more than pay for themselves. This representation is usually false. The average price received from chinchilla pelts in the U.S. is approximately $15. Chinchillas do not average six to eight offspring a year, and infant mortality can be up to 20 percent.

Good chinchillas can be purchased from professional breeders for $25 to $50 each. If you are interested in raising chinchillas, discuss the pros and cons with a legitimate chinchilla breeder. We know of no chinchilla breeders who have made significant profits in Mississippi but of many who have invested heavily in a large operation and have lost money.

WE HAVE A THIRST

To find out about the history of one's surroundings is a natural thirst. It is the aim of the Heritage Continued edition of the Sea Coast Echo to keep the past of Hancock County alive and to link it with the future.

It is our belief the Heritage editions will also serve those who are interested in tracing ancestry. Microfilms of these editions are planned for the State Department of Archives and History, as well as for Coastal library references.

To succeed in our aim to cover as many facets of Hancock County as possible, the cooperation of our reading public is needed. Please send your contributions or suggestions to Joe Pilet, 520 Highland Drive in Bay St. Louis, phone 467-5551.

MARCH OF DIMES POSTER CHILD, 1978, is Jill Shropshire daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shropshire of Clinton. Jill was born three months prematurely, weighing two pounds and two ounces, in critical condition suffering from hyaline-membrane disease, pneumonia, a heart murmur, heart failure, brain seizures, and brain hemorrhage. Unable to breathe, the pediatrician helped Jill labor through the first 45 minutes of her life, when she was taken by ambulance to the Newborn Center at University Medical Center, Jackson, where she was immediately put on a respirator, which helped her breathing for the next two weeks. The story goes further but Jill is alive and well through the efforts of the medical staff at Newborn and the March of Dimes. MoD asks you please think of Jill and the hundreds of others like her helped by the organization when approached by a canvasser.

Councilman Harry Farve queried council about roof conditions at Waveland Elementary. Fred Wagner told council that EFC has money available and it is a good possibility help from them can be received. Wagner also reminded council there was a bonded roof on the building.

condition...they continually go out when it is real cold," the principal told the board.

A PTO spokesman said children from two classes have been doubled up in one classroom to keep warm when heaters fail.

One parent noted teachers have advised parents to dress their children extra warmly because of heating failures in the school's classrooms.

Warm weather conditions at the school also came under fire at the meeting, with PTO representatives complaining of "temperatures well over 90 degrees" in the school's trailer classrooms.

"It's impossible for teachers and pupils to work in those hot, stuffy trailers," one mother complained.

Also at its Monday meeting, the city school board accepted the bid of Roy Anderson Jr. of Gulfport on construction of a new cafeteria facility at the Junior High School.

Total cost of the project, including architect's fees, will be $222,008.

The Plaquemine Contracting Company of Louisiana was sole bidder on projects to renovate the Junior High's old food service area into classrooms, and renovate North Bay Elementary School.

The board awarded those contracts to Plaquemine at a cost of $23,320 at North Bay and $23,540 at the Junior High.

Total cost of the three projects is $268,866 to be financed with $113,855 in State Educational Finance Commission funds and $155,011 in local funds.

The Bay St. Louis City Council, in a special session Monday afternoon, gave final approval to issuing $150,000 in short term notes for the school projects. The indebtedness will be retired through a 1.5 mill ad valorem tax levy in the school district beginning in 1979.

The additional $5,211 in local funds necessary for the projects will be met from a $7,000 surplus in the current short term school fund soon to be retired with the current one mill levy.

Wagner said construction time on the Junior High project is set at 180 days. In other action Monday, the board:

--Re-elected Board President

Virginia Gex and Secretary Jean Townsend.

--Took under advisement a proposal by Dr. William Bradford of Waveland to institute basic cardiac life support training courses in the system's eighth through twelfth grades. The courses would include cardio-pulmonary resuscitation and upper airway obstruction relief training.

--Received a report from McCullough on vandalism losses to school vehicles in the Junior High parking lot, pertaining primarily to destruction and theft of vehicle batteries.

--Received a report from Board Attorney Lucien Gex and Wagner on progress of negotiations with the manufacturer on repair of the Waveland Elementary School roof. Gex said he should know by the next board meeting if a satisfactory agreement can be reached.

--Approved recommendations from principals and the superintendent on renewal of teacher contracts for the 1978-1979 school year. Complete list of returning teachers can be found in this issue of the Echo.

Deferred action on purchase of a new school bus pending receipt of additional information on available options.

--Welcomed new school board member Maurice Singleton.

--Received assurances from the superintendent that the practice of distributing book sales information through classrooms will be stopped.

--Voted support for the practice of awarding jackets and school letters to students achieving outstanding scholastic averages.

--Discussed priorities to be placed on a list of 16 improvements recommended for the High School by the visiting committee of the Southern Association of Secondary Schools.

--Appointed members Hamilton and Walter Turcotte to serve on a committee with two administrators and eight teachers to update the system's personnel policies.

--Accepted bids on a bassoon and tape recorder for the High School band department.

Household poisons kill .5 million kids per year

National Poison Prevention Week will stretch from March 19-25, according to Paul Rankin, State Board of Health Division of Food and General Sanitation, who is serving as the Mississippi chairman of the 17th annual observance.

Rankin noted that more than 500,000 children under the age of five accidentally swallow poisonous household substances each year as the result of adult carelessness in storing and handling.

"Spring cleaning is an ideal time to clean out cabinets and closets where such potentially poisonous substances such as medicines, cleaners, solvents, and pesticides are stored," said Rankin. "These products should be destroyed if they are no longer useful and, if retained, they should be securely sealed and wherever possible locked up."

While new safety packaging techniques are significantly reducing the number of accidental poisonings, Rankin cautioned that it is essential that adults properly secure all packages after use and never transfer contents from one container to another.

Rankin urged each household with young children to keep at least one ounce of Ipecac in the home. He explained that the syrup, which should be administered only after calling a physician, is used to induce vomiting in certain poisoning cases when a physician recommends it.

Among other good housekeeping rules which Rankin suggested for avoiding accidental poisonings among children were these:

--Store internal medicines separately from other household products.

--Avoid taking medicines in front of children.

--Never refer to medicines as "candy."

--When household substances are in use, never let them out of an adult's sight.

SUMMER POPS AUDITIONS

Young Hancock County singers and musicians 30 and under are invited to participate in annual New Orleans Summer Pops Auditions Saturday, April 8, at University of New Orleans.

Applications must be in writing and include name, age, address, zip code, telephone number, name of music school and teacher, if any, type of voice and/or instrument, name of work to be played or sung, brief resume of schooling, experience and concerts performed, photograph, and $10 entry fee. Entries must be postmarked no later than March 25. Mail to 715 Maison Blanche Building, New Orleans, La., 70112.

--Keep poisonous substances in their original containers with labels attached. Never transfer them to cups or soft drink bottles.

--Keep all products properly labeled and read labels before using.

--Always keep a light on when giving or taking medicines.

National Poison Prevention Week was established in 1961 by joint resolution of the U. S. Congress and the President of the United States annually issues a proclamation designating the third week in March for such an observance.

For further information contact Paul M. Rankin, Mississippi State Board of Health, phone 354-6616.

the Environmental Protection Agency.

"They are unaware that a huge 20,000-acre, heavy-industry belt 13.5 miles long and 2.3 miles wide running from Gulfport to DeLisle is actively in the making, and devastation of the environment there is hanging over our heads," Laan continued.

The environmentalists point out in his letter that "forests, swamps, and wildlife habitat over the 20,000 acres will be destroyed in the ensuing industrial development."

"Our feeling is that at Thursday's hearing, we should demand a new environmental impact statement, clearly showing and stating what is really planned," Laan concluded.

Laan said White indicated he will send an EPA representative to the Thursday hearing.

In a related development, Save The Bay has donated $7,000 boat to the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory to facilitate an environmental study commissioned by DuPont.

Laan said donation of the 26-foot Lafitte skiff to GCRL was made to aid the agency in its year-long, base-line study of the waters of Bay St. Louis.

DuPont commissioned the extensive environmental study following hearings last year in which environmentalists opposed construction of the plant and particularly company plans to discharge industrial wastes into the northern end of Bay St. Louis.

DuPont authorized the study to establish the environmental standards of the area prior to the start of operations at the plant.

form of a motion by Councilman Harry Farve, a motion that received unanimous support.

Rice indicated the manhole at deMontluzin would have to be rebuilt and put on pilings, and the Second St. manhole will probably have to be raised, but it seems to be intact as far as he can tell.

When asked by Councilman Fred Wagner which way, in his opinion, will be the best way to receive bids on the repair work, Rice replied, "...by unit price cost for each break, with a ceiling price on each."

Councilman Wagner made a motion authorizing Mayor Bennett to work with the Burk engineering concerns in preparation of the necessary bid documents.

Rice suggested the city fill in the cave-ins with clay gravel to protect the water and gas lines at N. Second and deMontluzin. Rice did not recommend traffic use until these breaks are

A breakdown of the Waveland total shows some six permits issued for residential construction valued at $263,676, and nine issued for alterations, additions and repairs valued at $39,300.

Two permits were issued in Bay St. Louis for residential work valued at $50,000, and two others for alterations and repairs costing $22,500.

Addition of the skiff, dubbed 'Save The Bay,' brings the GCRL fleet to 13, according to laboratory director Dr. Harold Howse.

"It's in fine shape and a very nice boat," Howse said. He noted the boat's ability to maneuver in shallow water will make it highly useful in estuarine research.

Terms of the donation include retention of the name 'Save The Bay' on the boat during GCRL ownership, as well as by any future owners or operators of the craft.

Laan also reported last week that filing of an appeal by Save The Bay to the Mississippi Air and Water Pollution Control Commission's award of a wastewater discharge permit to DuPont inadvertently may have been filed too late.

The group is asking the Harrison County Chancery Court to suspend the permit or issue an injunction against further construction of the plant until the appeal is settled, and then declare the permit invalid.

Laan said from his Metairie, La., home last week that the group's attorney, Robert Homes, also of Metairie, forgot to file the appeal which was prepared in January.

"I'm rather disconcerted about it," Laan said. "I'm afraid we're too late, the case has prescribed."

He said the pollution control commission returned his cost bond after a Feb. 28 meeting, apparently because the deadline for appeal had passed. Laan said he does not know how long the appeal period was.

repaired.

The council, upon taking office last July, were faced with the task of repairing the same area of N. Second and St. George streets, and felt the job should be properly done this time.

Last Tuesday Council authorized Mayor Bennett to repair the break at Second and St. George using city labor under professional engineering supervision. Monday night council was told by the mayor the city lacks the necessary equipment and manpower to perform the task.

Bennett said the water leaks on Beach Blvd. in vicinity of U.S. 90 were caused by the pipe being old and full of pin holes. He said he felt the pipe should be replaced rather than repaired. Council wanted to know from whom they could get help to repair the street after repairing the pipe. Hill said sometimes you can get aid from Dept. of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), other times they won't help.

Residential construction in unincorporated Hancock County valued at $134,520 was authorized through nine permits, and one permit was granted for some $3,000 in repairs.

Pass Christian issued $288,200 in residential construction permits and $11,942 in repair permits.

There were no commercial construction permits issued in the area during the period, MRDC reported.

SELF TREATMENT
Mississippians with chronic nervous trouble are more likely to seek medical attention than those with severe stomach pain or insomnia, according to a study conducted by The University of Mississippi School of Pharmacy. The study showed that self-treatment is a significant part of the health care process, according to Dr. Mickey C. Smith, professor and chairman of the Department of Health Care Administration at Ole Miss. Frequent self-treatment was found for people experiencing such symptoms as serious "gas," severe stomach cramps, frequent diarrhea, painful or swollen joints and sinus trouble. Dr. Smith said that many people prescribed their own remedies because they did not have a regular doctor or source of medical care. He pointed out that although self-treatment is adequate in many cases, especially if the patient consults a pharmacist about non-prescription treatments, self-medication of some of the problems is probably inappropriate.

Long Beach choir preps for Mexico

By FAYE S. HERTZOG

Vice President
Long Beach Concert Choir Association

The Long Beach High School Concert Choir, directed by Joanne Edwards, will participate in the 3rd Annual Spring Choral Festival held March 27, in Mexico City.

Six choirs from high schools in the United States, along with choirs from throughout Mexico, are expected to participate in this unique festival slate for the National Auditorium in Mexico City.

Directed by Maestro Ramon Noble Olivares, director of choral office of the National Institute of Fine Arts, the six choirs will perform individually for the Mexican choirs and then join together for several Spanish numbers.

The 50 member choir and six chaperones will depart New Orleans International Airport March 21 and will spend eight days touring Mexico City and Taxco. The group is scheduled for a half hour nationally televised show, a concert in Taxco at the ancient Santa Prisca Church, and at the University of Mexico at Toluca. The will climb the pyramids, observe worshippers walking on their knees at the Shrine of Guadalupe, the Lourdes of Mexico, revel in the Ballet Folklórico, see the floating gardens of Xochimilco, tour the Museum of Anthropology, and see the ancient Chalchicomula Castle.

The choir accepted the invitation last April and worked through the spring and fall on several large money making projects, also receiving the enormous support of the parents organization, the school board, administration and faculty, as well as local businessmen, clubs, civic organizations, churches and townspeople, as well as the entire Coastal community.

New career areas open to AF women

Air Force enlisted women can now apply for all but four military career areas.

Those career fields, remaining closed to women by law, are aerial gunner, aircraft loadmaster, pararescue-recovery specialist, and radio operator-maintenance-driver specialist.

Some career fields, previously closed to women, have now been opened. For example, women can now apply for duty as inflight refueling operators on KC-135 tankers and as flight engineers on C-141 cargo aircraft.

A test program is now underway by the Air Force to select and train qualified volunteers in these newly opened career areas.

Bank announces promotions

Leo W. Seal Jr., president, Hancock Bank, has announced the promotion of eight officers and the election of three new officers following a meeting of the bank's board of directors last Thursday.

Those promoted are: Mrs. Pauline Billingsley to assistant vice president and manager of the proof-transit department; L. Clinton Necaise to assistant vice president; Alfred G. Rath to assistant vice president; W. Dayton Robinson to operations officer; Mrs. Kate Gentry to loan officer; Mrs. Patricia A. Ladner to loan officer; Watson G. Butts to branch officer; and Mrs. Carolyn Dabbs to business development officer.

New officers elected are: Mrs. Helen Blackwell, bank card administrator; Roland LaFontaine, assistant cashier; and Mrs. Syble Williamson, assistant operations officer.

Mrs. Billingsley has been employed with the bank since 1952 in the proof-transit department. In 1960 she was named department manager and elected an officer in 1975. Mrs. Billingsley is active in the American Institute of Banking and is a member of the board of directors of the Mississippi Gulf Coast Chapter, AIB.

L. Clinton Necaise, who has been with the bank for eight years, has a bachelor of science degree in finance from the University of Southern Mississippi. Now manager of installment loan generation in Gulfport, he has worked in the collections department, personal loans and as branch relief officer. He was elected assistant loan officer in 1975 and loan officer in 1976.

Alfred G. Rath was named manager of the Bank Americard department in 1971, assistant credit officer in 1973, credit officer in 1975, and loan officer in 1977. He received his degree in finance from the University of Southern Mississippi, and is a member of Robert Morris Associates, National Association of Credit Management, and the American Institute of Banking.

W. Dayton Robinson, a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi, is a member of the Pi Gamma Mu honorary scholarship fraternity. He has been associated with the bank since 1952, and has worked throughout the banking system. He was vault custodian in Gulfport and manager of commercial loan operations until 1964 when he was assigned to the data processing department. He was elected assistant operations officer in 1967 and earlier this year was named manager of data processing operations.

Mrs. Kate Gentry, who was supervisor of commercial loan operations, was elected assistant loan officer in 1975. In 1977 she was named to head the mortgage real estate department, a position which involved supervision of the development of the new department. She has been with the bank for eighteen years.

Mrs. Patricia Ann Ladner has been with Hancock Bank since 1962. Assigned to the installment loan department for most of that time, she was named head teller in installment loans in 1965 and elected assistant loan officer in 1975. She attended Bemidji State College, Minn.

Watson J. Butts, a graduate of Mississippi State University joined the bank's Bank Americard department in 1970. In 1971, he was transferred to installment loans and later assigned to Long Beach as assistant manager. He was elected assistant loan officer in 1976.

Mrs. Carolyn Dabbs has worked in several departments since joining the bank staff. She was a teller in the Gulfport office and in 1969 was appointed head teller at the new Norwood Village branch. In 1972 she was named manager of the Women's department, and in 1975 was elected an officer. She attended the University of Southern Mississippi and is now teaching a course in bank marketing through the American Institute of Banking.

Mrs. Helen Blackwell, a native of Wiggins, began her banking career in the bookkeeping department. She also worked in exchange and collections, and as supervisor of general books in the comptroller department, accounts payable clerk and secretary to the comptroller. In June 1973 she was transferred to the credit department. Mrs. Blackwell was named manager of the bank's credit card department, which is responsible for Visa-BankAmericard, Master Charge and American Express Gold Card accounts, in 1977.

Roland LaFontaine graduated from high school in Bay St. Louis and attended the University of Mississippi. He was employed with the Veterans' Administration and also worked as a food store manager before joining the bank staff in 1973. In 1976 he was named customer relations manager in charge of tellers and new accounts in the Gulfport office.

Mrs. Syble Williamson has been with the bank since 1962. She was assigned to the newly created accrual department, and in 1972 was named supervisor of that department. She is also experienced in various phases of audit department operations and procedures. Mrs. Williamson is active in the bank's staff sales programs.

APPOINTED TO BOARD

State Sen. Ellis Bodron of Vicksburg has accepted a position on the Board of Directors of the Mississippi Mineral Resources Institute. The institute, which is administered at The University of Mississippi and works through all Mississippi institutions of higher learning, plans, organizes and conducts research in Mississippi's energy and mineral requirements. Sen. Bodron, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and a 30-year veteran of the Legislature, joins a group of 18 prominent business, professional, academic and political leaders of Mississippi on the institute's board.

Champion Bay girls run strong in maiden meet

By SHARON WALLS

The Bay St. Louis girls' track team, defending champs of the District VIII Class AA opened its track season with a victory in a four way track meet Tuesday in Gulfport. The girls notched 67 points to Gulfport's 37, Ocean Springs 31, and Long Beach's 26.

The Bay High boys came in third in the meet, with 32 points. Gulfport tallied 103 points for first place, Ocean Springs took second place with 71 and Long Beach finished in fourth at 26.

Returning letterman Valada Lewis, who was last year's district champ in the 50, 75, and 100 yard dashes, won first place in the 50 with 6.3, the 75 with 8.9 and the 100 with 11.4. Lewis combined with Janet Sheppard, Gloria Hargett and Cynthia Jackson to capture the 440 relay at 51.6, the 300 relay at 35.2, and the 200 relay at 21.7. Jackson and Hargett are also returning lettermen. Sheppard is competing in her first year.

In 440 yard dash sophomore Patricia Jackson, a first year runner, came in first with a time of 68.4. Junior Lisa Thomas, also in her first year, placed second in the event.

"We will be strong in the sprints and relays again this year," said Bay girls' coach Willie Bradley, "but we are weak in the field, and there is not as much depth in the 440 dash. We have a hard working group, even though bad weather has kept us indoors for the past month. Our chances in the conference will depend on how well our new runners develop."

Bay High, winners of the Gulf Coast Conference title last year, has moved into the Pascagoula River Conference.

In the boys' competition, Nacaise placed second in the high jump, and Coe placed third in the discus.

In the running event, Bay High placed third in the 440 relay, 180 low hurdles, 880 run and mile relay.

Bay High crushes St. John

The Bay High tennis team crushed St. John, 5-0, Monday on St. John's home court.

Lester Martin, playing in the boys singles for Bay High, tripped up Jimmy Bullock, 7-5 and 6-4. Partners Don Fayard and Robbie Boyd beat Steve Stockbridge and Kenny Collins, 6-2 and 6-1.

In mixed doubles, Abby Murtagh and Collin Jones edged by Susan Gray and Eric Russell, 7-5 and 7-6. Brenda Lafontaine and Mark France, playing B-team mixed doubles, slipped by Tommy Ransom and Kathy Foecke, 9-7.

HNC Hawks lose pitcher in opener

By SHARON WALLS
Starting pitcher Byron Ladner tore ligaments and broke his ankle while sliding into home in the top of the first inning as the Hancock North Central Hawks opened their spring baseball season with a loss to Lumberton, 7-6, Tuesday, in an unfinished doubleheader at Lumberton. The second game was called due to darkness and lack of lighting on the field.

"The break is pretty bad," commented Hancock coach David Ward. "Byron will be unable to play for the rest of the season, and that will leave us weak in pitching."

Alan Dedeaux pitched the distance in the opening game, giving up 10 hits, three walks and striking out six. Barry Arcement opened the second game which was stopped by darkness before the last innings.

Dedeaux and Todd Ladner each got RBI's. Denist Nelson, Zachary Ladner, Byron Ladner and Steve Nunn also got hits. Nelson, first in HNC's batting line-up, hit a home run his first time at bat that was counted as a double because it went through the fence.

For Lumberton, Strebeck was the pitcher, letting by 10 hits, and three walks but tallying nine strike-outs. The Hawks moved out ahead in the opening innings but Lumberton caught them in the bottom of the fourth when a home run broke the tie and sent Lumberton ahead for the win.

HIGH SPEED STATISTICS
A study by the Mississippi Safety Council shows speed pays a big part in traffic fatalities. A National Safety Council study shows that almost 40 percent of all fatal accidents last year were due to driving at a speed too fast for conditions. Fatality odds double between 55 mph and 65 mph. And more than double from 65 mph to 75 mph.

Buccaneer Crew Notes

by DIDDY QUINLAN

Beautiful weather brought a beautiful crowd to Buccaneer State Park this weekend. Participation in our recreation program was very high by both camping visitors and local residents. Our Saturday schedule consisted of an afternoon craft session for kids during which we made Easter mobiles.

Kite twine, clothes hangers and construction paper were assembled in various arrangements to make mobiles of Easter eggs, Easter bunnies, and Easter baskets. Later in the afternoon a tennis tournament was championed by two Waveland contestants, Robbie Boyd and Don Fayard, both 17, who took first and second places respectively.

A Saturday evening foosball tournament gave Randy Cox of Ocean Springs a first place prize, while Mike Morel of Metairie, LA took second place.

Following the foosball action, a ping-pong tournament was started. In another strike for women's liberation Gloria Gonzales, of Arabi, defeated George Wall of Metairie, LA to emerge as champion over 17 other participants. Mr. Wall took second place.

SUNDAY'S ACTIVITIES
Sunday's program called for a story hour for kids and a St. Patrick's Day craft session. Our story hours the next few months will consist of chapters in the book, "Little House on the Prairie." These stories, delightful and entertaining, usually are told on Sunday mornings and are open to anyone. The usual age group ranges from 6-10.

CAMPER SAINTS CLUB

A special word of appreciation goes to the Camper Saints Club for brightening up our weekend. Many of them visited our park this weekend in order to attend the Lawrence Welk concert in Biloxi. For whatever reason they came, we enjoyed having them.

ST. PATRICK IS THEME

Our schedule for next weekend centers around St. Patrick's Day and Easter. With the luck of the Irish we'll have good weather to enjoy Waveland's parade followed by an Irish Pot Luck Supper. "The Salvage Gang," a cute movie for young people will follow the supper. Sunday's activities include a Story Hour, and Easter craft session, an Easter Egg Hunt - again everyone is invited.

INTERNATIONAL GAMES
Another reminder, that April 1, 2 p.m., our class on international games starts. These games are for adults as well as children. Come on out and try one. You just might like it.

BLUE JEANS GC
Blue Jeans Garden Club will hold its monthly meeting and a corsage workshop at 1 p.m. today, at the home of Mrs. Charles Dickson, Waveland.

Red Cross establishes 5-point county program

The American National Red Cross, Hancock Chapter, has established a five point program designed to enhance the value of the organization to the county and increase membership.

The program was announced this week by Ed Friloux, the group's new president.

Serving with Friloux this year are: Randolph Bourgeois, first vice president; Louis Fernandez, second vice president; Frances Frankiewicz, secretary; Pat Chaney, treasurer; Richard Peneguy, first aid; Brother Albert

Ledet, water safety; John Rutherford, Jr., blood bank; Ethel Evans, publicity; William Hoffman, disaster; Bob Wyatt, communications. Bobby Boudin is volunteer, acting fund chairman until a replacement can be found. Mrs. Thelma Kergosien, is the chapter's executive secretary and service officer. Other chairmanships, as yet unfilled and for which volunteers are being sought, are: youth, nurses, manpower and resources.

The program outlined by Friloux consists of a series of goals:

- (1) Increase the number of qualified instructors in the various courses so that more can be offered to more people;
- (2) Recruit volunteers for the various jobs;
- (3) Up-date the disaster shelters and shelter personnel, and coordinate with civil defense;
- (4) Develop youth programs;
- (5) Increased treasury through sustaining memberships and other means so that more local services can be offered.

Twenty-one members turned out at the last meeting and as March has been designated as membership month, each was asked to bring at least five new members into the organization. It was agreed that in addition to the membership card, a Red Cross decal would be given to each new member.

Disaster Chairman Hoffman will attend the annual disaster academy, staged by the Gulf States Division.

Regular meetings have been set for 7:30 p.m., on the last Tuesday of each month at the City-County Memorial Library on US-90.

Mrs. Clarence Evans, publicity chairman, said of the meetings:

"If you're not a member, come join us - you'll like it! If you are a member - come to all the meetings - you'll love it!"

A workshop on Methods and Materials for Exceptional Children is scheduled for April 1, 8, 15, 22, and 29 under the sponsorship of the University of Southern Mississippi's Department of Special Education.

Specifically designed for non-special education majors, a coordinating spokesman said the workshop is designed to familiarize the regular classroom teacher with educational procedures and materials effective with various types of exceptional children.

Emphasizing practice, not theory, the workshop will include: orientation; exceptional learners and problems in the classroom; characteristics of exceptional children; sensory, physical, psychological and behavioral impairments and resultant problems; mainstreaming and the classroom teacher; special instruction for the exceptional child in math, reading, language and social studies; methods, materials and strategies for the classroom teacher; coordination of the classroom and resource center and alternative instruction for the handicapped.

Three semester hours of graduate or undergraduate credit can be earned upon completion of the workshop. Dr. John Norsworthy, an assistant professor of special education, is workshop director.

CANADIAN PIPELINE United Gas Pipeline Company has entered into a long-term contract to purchase a minimum of 400 million cubic feet per day of natural gas from Alberta, Canada. The pipe line will eventually be a part of the Alaskan Pipeline System from the North Slope to the lower 48 states.

Additional workshop information is available from USM Department of Conferences and Workshops, Southern Station Box 56, Hattiesburg, MS 39401.

Those interested in presenting a tree for this project should send $2 to: Keep Mississippi Beautiful, P.O. Box 1609, Jackson, Ms. 39205.

German measles

warning issued by health dept.

Dr. Randall Reves, epidemiologist for the Mississippi State Board of Health's Bureau of Disease Control, reported Wednesday that there is a rubella (German measles) outbreak of 12-15 cases on the Mississippi State University campus. Outbreaks of rubella are significant because Congenital Rubella Syndrome occurs among 20-25 percent or more of infants born to women who have acquired rubella during the first three months of pregnancy. This syndrome includes cataracts, mental retardation, heart defects, and bone defects.

According to Dr. Reves, the public should be aware of the dangers for the pregnant woman associated with rubella so that proper precautionary measures can be taken. "All males and any females below child-bearing age who have no documented record of rubella vaccination should be vaccinated at once. Any female of child-bearing age who has no documentation of vaccination should consult a physician for individual counseling as to appropriate action. Because of the theoretical possibility that vaccination during the first trimester of pregnancy can result in damage to the fetus.

Kowalski boy celebrates 8th birthday

Deadline is March 31 for questionnaire

Congressman Trent Lott's 1978 questionnaire seeking opinions on a variety of federal matters from people in the Fifth Congressional District is now being distributed.

"In this questionnaire, I am asking the people to voice their opinions on 28 questions covering the topics of 'Your Taxes,' 'Energy,' 'International Affairs,' 'Domestic Affairs,' and 'Federal Budget,'" Lott said. "The questions under most of the categories will require 'yes' or 'no' answers because these are the kinds of tough decisions that Members of Congress must make when they vote."

Lott also said the questions under the "Federal Budget" category will allow the people to decide on whether specific areas should be funded more, the same or less.

Printed on the questionnaire form is a deadline of March 15 for returning it to Lott's Washington office, but a delay in mailing has led to the deadline being extended to March 31. "This deadline extension should help relieve the pressure to return the form which may have been caused by the original deadline," Lott said.

"I have always valued very highly the opinions of the people in the Fifth District and, through this questionnaire, I hope to provide a means of ensuring that their opinions are counted."

The company claimed operating expenses of $14,320,000 for the first month this year, compared with a January, 1977, total of $12,475,000.

Everybody's Girl to open April 27

at Little Theatre
By MIKE CUEVAS
Publicity Director

Whenever anyone new to the Bay-Waveland area inquires about the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre they will most often be told to contact Mary Carter.

She is the Little Theatre's veteran director and the matriarch of the leading Little Theatre family. The family includes son, Charles, Jr., brother, John Scaife, Sr., and sister, Francis Frankiewicz, and the Frankiewicz family.

Mrs. Carter's Little Theatre history begins in 1954 when she did props for the late Caroline Kieffer. Under Mrs. Kieffer's tutelage she progressed from props, to script girl, to actress, to director.

An aficionado of the "character" role she appeared in several plays over the years, but her true love and talent is directing, especially comedy.

Through the works of John Patrick she has directed her sister Francis in two of the most memorable female roles in Little Theatre history, Opal Kronkie, "Everybody Loves Opal," and Ethel Savage in the "Curious Savage."

Mrs. Carter has given her time to fledgling actors, teaching discipline without restraint of natural energy, held rein on "temperamental stars," and in general been one of the nicest bosses the Little Theatre has had.

Not selfish with her talents, Mrs. Carter has helped along each new director with good advice, encouragement and a wonderful shoulder to cry on or punch.

Currently in production of the three act comedy "Everybody's Girl," by Patrick, she will surely help create another memorable character in Beatrice Bundie, being portrayed by Alice Holmes.

But "Everybody's Girl" at the Little Theatre is Mary Carter. We all love her and so do all the audiences. "Everybody's Girl" is scheduled for April 27, 28 and 29 at the playhouse on Boardman Avenue.

produced new members - Mrs. Ray Gordon and Mrs. Edmond Fahey, Jr.

Mrs. Dibrell Jones gave a most interesting and informative talk on the hummingbird, "Sipper of Nectar," a migratory bird of many species.

Committee Improvement Chairman Mrs. Ben Hille, announced Mayor Bennett has promised to have the city of Bay St. Louis cleaned up in time for the Spring Pilgrimage on March 29. The Garden Center is now in the process of being painted.

Pilgrimage Chairman Mrs. George L. Seuzeneau, Jr., reported plans are going along very smoothly. Mrs. Waldo Otis, co-chairman, requested members wishing to loan antique articles of china and crystal to be viewed during the pilgrimage please contact her.

World Gardening Chairman Mrs. Walter Crowley, read a letter received from CARE, thanking the club for its generous donation.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Woody of 134 Lafitte Street received the Garden of the Month Award for Waveland.

Mrs. William Goodell was chairman of hostesses for the meeting. Assisting her were Mesdames Eldon Gilly, James DeBlanc, Boyd Whittington, W. R. Ellerbee, Edward Brennan, Matt Hunter, Maurice Karner, O. Duke, John Schott, and Mrs. Ray Gordon.
